- (3) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must table a copy of the annual report submitted in terms of subsection (1), to the Provincial Legislature within 14 days after receipt thereof.

Establishment of Consumer Tribunals

8.(1) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must, within 12 months after the coming into operation of the Act, by notice in the Gazette, establish one or more Consumer Tribunals for the Province.

- (2) A Consumer Tribunal referred to in subsection (1) –
- (a) is established for the area described in the notice; and

(b) has its seat at such place mentioned in the notice.

(3) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may by notice in the Gazette –

- (a) amend the area for a Consumer Tribunal contemplated in subsection (2); or
- (b) withdraw the notice contemplated in subsection (1) and abolish a Consumer Tribunal contemplated in subsection (1);

(4) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may, subject to section 10(1)(b), determine that, in relation to particular proceedings, a Consumer Tribunal sits at a place other than the seat of that Consumer Tribunal.

Objects of Consumer Tribunal

9. The objects of a Consumer Tribunal are –

- (a) to receive, hear and decide on any consumer matter; and
- (b) to dispose of any consumer complaint or dispute.

Powers, duties and functions of Consumer Tribunal

10.(1) A Consumer Tribunal must –

- (a) receive, hear, consider and decide on any consumer complaint which is before it by virtue of proceedings contemplated in this Act;
- (b) sit on such days and during such hours and at such place as the presiding officer or Chairperson, in consultation with the Consumer Protector, may determine;
- (c) hold and resume sittings at such time and place throughout the areas of the Province as the presiding officer or the Consumer Protector may determine;
- (d) apply the existing law of South Africa in the assessment of a consumer complaint or dispute;
- (e) lay down the general principles to govern conflict resolution between consumers and business;
- (f) order the Consumer Protector to record, in the list of adverse notations to be maintained and kept by the Office, the name of the business, the name of person conducting such business and the finding of a Consumer Tribunal in respect of subsection (2)(a), (b) and (c); and

(g) exercise any other powers and perform the functions and duties assigned to it in terms of this Act.

(2) A Consumer Tribunal may –

(a) award costs, on the scale to be prescribed or in the amount determined by the Consumer Tribunal, against any person found liable to the consumer by virtue of any unlawful conduct, by conduct or omission in terms of this Act or under any existing law;

(b) with regard to a consumer complaint relating to a hard bargain or conduct which the consumer rightly believes to be inequitable, unfair or grossly unreasonable, make a finding to that effect;

(c) at the hearing of a consumer complaint, if it is satisfied that the complaint is lodged frivolously or vexatiously, award costs against such consumer; and

(d) generally deal with all matters necessary or incidental to the performance of its functions in terms of this Act.

(3) The presiding officer of a Consumer Tribunal must as soon as practicable, after 31 March in each year, submit to the responsible Member of the Executive Council an annual report on the activities of the Consumer Tribunal.

(4) The report submitted to the responsible Member of the Executive Council in terms of subsection (3) must include a list of adverse notations contemplated in section 10(1)(f).

(5) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may require a Consumer Tribunal to submit additional reports to him or her as the responsible Member of the Executive Council may require from time to time.

(6) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must submit to the Provincial Legislature a copy of the annual report contemplated in subsection (3), within 14 days after its receipt.

Composition of Consumer Tribunal

11.(1) A Consumer Tribunal consists of –

- (a) six and not more than eight members appointed by the responsible Member of the Executive Council; and
- (b) the Chairperson, appointed in terms of section 12 of this Act.

(2) The membership contemplated in subsection (1) must include –

- (a) a Chairperson, who must be an admitted Attorney or Advocate or retired magistrate or law lecturer at a university with at least five years experience in the legal profession or the administration of justice;
- (b) a deputy Chairperson, who must also be an admitted Attorney or Advocate or retired magistrate or law lecturer at a university with at least three years experience in the legal profession or the administration of justice;
- (c) one person having knowledge and experience in the field of consumer advocacy, economics and commerce;
- (d) one person who has knowledge and experience in the consumer industry and not actively involved nor having financial interest therein, whether directly or indirectly;
- (e) one person as a secretary of the Consumer Tribunal to perform administrative work incidental to the functions of the Consumer Tribunal; and
- (f) one such other person to assist the secretary of the Consumer Tribunal as may be necessary.

(3) In appointing the members to a Consumer Tribunal, the responsible Member of the Executive Council must ensure that historic imbalances are addressed.

(4) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must, by notice in two newspapers circulating widely in the Province and using any other method designated to reach the greatest number of residents in the Province, invite persons or any interested parties within the Province to nominate candidates for appointment to a Consumer Tribunal.

(5) The notice contemplated in subsection (4), must specify –

- (a) the nomination procedure;
- (b) the requirements for nominations; and
- (c) the closing date for the nominations.

(6) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must consider all nominations submitted in response to the notice, and may appoint a selection panel consisting of no more than four senior departmental officials to review all the nominations and make recommendations to the responsible Member of the Executive Council regarding the candidates to a Consumer Tribunal.

(7) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must cause the names of the persons appointed to a Consumer Tribunal to be published in the Gazette and in at least two newspapers circulating in the Province, immediately after such persons have been notified, in writing, of their appointment to a Consumer Tribunal.

(8) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must, within two months after the appointment of members, provide the Portfolio Committee with the names of the appointed members including the term of their appointment.

(9) This section applies, with the necessary changes, to the filling of a vacancy on a Consumer Tribunal.

Disqualification from being appointed to Consumer Tribunal

12. A person is disqualified from being appointed to a Consumer Tribunal or from remaining on a Consumer Tribunal, by reason that he or she –

- (a) is or becomes an unrehabilitated insolvent;
- (b) is or has been declared by the competent court to be of unsound mind;
- (c) is directly or indirectly interested in any contract with the Consumer Protector or Consumer Tribunal and fails to declare his or her interest and the nature thereof in a manner required by this Act;
- (d) a person is under curatorship;
- (e) has at any time been removed from an office of trust on account of misconduct involving theft or fraud;
- (f) has been convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine, except that the responsible Member of the Executive Council may, upon such nominee disclosing full details of the offence in an affidavit, condone a conviction that is consistent with section 106(1)(e) of the Constitution: Provided that a disqualification in terms of this subsection ends five years after the sentence has been completed;

(g) fails to disclose an interest in accordance with section 13 or attended or participated in the proceedings of a Consumer Tribunal while having an interest contemplated in the said section;

(h) is a public servant;

(i) is an office bearer;

(j) is not a citizen of the Republic; or

(k) is not resident in the Province.

Declaration of financial or other interests of members of Consumer Tribunal

13.(1) A person who has been nominated to serve on a Consumer Tribunal in terms of section 11 must, within 10 days of being nominated, submit a written declaration to the responsible Member of the Executive Council of all direct or indirect interests in any company, close corporation and of any other business interests.

(2) Any failure by a nominee to disclose financial and other interests in terms of subsection (1) disqualifies such nominee in terms of section 12 from being appointed to a Consumer Tribunal.

(3) Every member of a Consumer Tribunal must, upon assuming office and at the beginning of every financial year of the Consumer Tribunal, submit a written declaration of his or her direct or indirect interest in any company, close corporation or other business interests to the responsible Member of the Executive Council.

(4) Where a member of a Consumer Tribunal acquires interest in any company, close corporation or other business interests, at anytime during his or her tenure as a member of the Consumer Tribunal he or she must, within 10 days of the date of the acquisition of such an interest, submit a written declaration to the responsible Member of the Executive Council of such an interest.

(5) Any failure on the part of the member to disclose his or her interests as contemplated in subsections (3) and (4) results in the termination of appointment of such member in terms of section 16(2).

Failure to declare financial or other interests by member of Consumer Tribunal

14.(1) A member of a Consumer Tribunal who fails to make a declaration envisaged in section 13 may, subject to subsection (2), be disqualified from remaining on the Consumer Tribunal.

(2) The responsible Member of the Executive Council, on becoming aware that a member of a Consumer Tribunal has failed to comply with the provisions of section 13, must investigate the matter and consider appropriate disciplinary action.

Term of office of member of Consumer Tribunal

15.(1) A member is appointed to serve on a Consumer Tribunal for a period of five years or such lesser period as the responsible Member of the Executive Council may determine.

(2) A member is eligible for re-appointment upon the expiry of his or her term of office for one additional term.

Vacancies, removal from office and resignation of members of Consumer Tribunal

16.(1) A member of a Consumer Tribunal must vacate office if he or she becomes subject to a disqualification contemplated in section 12.

(2) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may, after having afforded a member the opportunity to state his or her case, at any time terminate the term of office of such member if, in his or her opinion, there are sound, cogent and justifiable reasons for doing so.

(3) A member may resign from office by giving not less than 30 days written notice to the responsible Member of the Executive Council: Provided that the responsible Member of the Executive Council may waive the resignation notice.

(4) Whenever a vacancy occurs on a Consumer Tribunal, the responsible Member of the Executive Council must, subject to section 11, appoint a person to fill such vacancy for the unexpired portion of the period of office of the member in whose place such person is appointed.

(5) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may, subject to subsection (2), terminate the appointment of all or some of the members of a Consumer Tribunal.

(6) In the event that the responsible Member of the Executive Council exercises his or her powers in terms of subsection (5), he or she may, notwithstanding the procedure for the appointment of the members of a Consumer Tribunal set out in section 11, but subject to subsections (2) and (3) of section 11, appoint persons to serve as members of a Consumer Tribunal on an interim basis: Provided that –

- (a) the persons appointed to replace the members whose appointment has been terminated in terms of subsection (5), may not remain on the Consumer Tribunal for a period of more than 90 days from the date of their appointment; and
- (b) the responsible Member of the Executive Council, must, subject to section 11, appoint the permanent members of the Consumer Tribunal within 90 days of the appointment contemplated in paragraph (a) of this subsection.

Temporary suspension of member of Consumer Tribunal

17.(1) The responsible Member of the Executive Council may, after applying the relevant rules of natural justice, suspend a member of a Consumer Tribunal on full remuneration if –

- (a) the member is alleged to have committed a serious offence; and
- (b) the responsible Member of the Executive Council reasonably believes that the presence of such member at the Consumer Tribunal might jeopardise any investigation and the enquiry into the alleged misconduct, or endanger the well-being or safety of any person or state property: Provided that a suspension of this nature is a precautionary measure which does not constitute a finding.

(2) If a member is suspended as a precautionary measure contemplated in subsection (1), the responsible Member of the Executive Council must hold the enquiry within 60 days from the effective date of such suspension.

Constitution of Consumer Tribunal

18.(1) Subject to subsection (4), the quorum of a Consumer Tribunal is three members.

(2) Except where otherwise provided, a decision of the majority of members of a Consumer Tribunal present is the decision of the Consumer Tribunal.

(3) A member of a Consumer Tribunal must recuse himself or herself from proceedings on the grounds of any interest or association likely to affect his or her impartial consideration of the matter, or which is likely to be seen to do so.

(4) If at any stage during the proceedings before a Consumer Tribunal –

(a) the chairperson becomes incapable of acting or is absent, the proceedings must begin afresh;

(b) any other member becomes incapable of acting or is absent, the proceedings must continue before the remaining members; and

(c) two or more other members become incapable of acting or are absent, the proceedings must begin afresh unless all the parties to the proceedings agree unconditionally in writing to accept the decision of the majority of remaining members.

(5) In the event that the proceedings continue before an even number of members and there is a split decision, the chairperson's decision is final.

Remuneration of members of Consumer Tribunal

19.(1)(a) A member of a Consumer Tribunal may be paid such remuneration and allowances as may be determined by the responsible Member of the Executive Council in consultation with the Member of the Executive Council for Finance.

(b) A member of a Consumer Tribunal who receives remuneration, allowances or other benefits by virtue of his or her post or employment in –

- (i) the national government;
- (ii) a provincial government;
- (iii) a municipality; or
- (iv) a corporation, body or institution in which the national or a provincial government has a controlling interest, and who continues to receive such remuneration, allowances or other benefits while serving as a member of a Consumer Tribunal, may only receive remuneration and allowances referred to in paragraph (a) to the extent required to place such member in the financial position he or she would have been were it not for such post or employment.

(2)(a) A member of a Consumer Tribunal and a person who has been co-opted to the Consumer Tribunal may, in respect of his or her functions as a member or co-opted member, receive reimbursement for reasonable actual subsistence and traveling expenses necessitated by the actual attendance of a meeting or duties of the Consumer Tribunal;

(b) The responsible Member of the Executive Council, in consultation with the Member of the Executive Council for Finance must determine procedures, including control measures, for the management, handling and processing of claims for subsistence and traveling expenses contemplated in paragraph (a).

Expert and other assistance to Consumer Tribunal

20.(1) A Consumer Tribunal may appoint such experts or other persons as service providers as it may deem necessary with a view to assist it in the exercise and performance of its powers, duties and functions.

(2) The terms, conditions, and fees applicable to any expert or person appointed under subsection (1), and the work to be performed or services to be rendered must be determined by the Consumer Tribunal, and be contained in a written agreement entered into for that purpose between the Consumer Tribunal and the expert or person concerned.

(3) The experts or other persons appointed under subsection (1) may not vote on any decision taken by the Consumer Tribunal.

Proceedings of Consumer Tribunal

21.(1) The proceedings before a Consumer Tribunal must –

- (a) be initiated by summons in the prescribed form which must be served on the person concerned in any manner as may be prescribed, which may include service outside the Province;
 - (b) be open to the public;
 - (c) be prosecuted by any person who must have been appointed by the Office;
 - (d) allow any person who may be adversely affected by any proceedings to appear in person or be represented or assisted by an attorney or advocate or any other person; and
 - (e) allow a person against who the proceedings are instituted or who may be affected by the proceedings or the decision to appear in person or be represented or assisted by an advocate, attorney or any other person.
- (2) A Consumer Tribunal may direct that the public or any member thereof may not attend any proceedings of the Consumer Tribunal or portion thereof, if this is justified in the interest of –
- (a) the conduct of the proceedings or the consideration of the matter in question; or
 - (b) the protection of the privacy of any person alleged to be involved in any unfair business practices or has contravened the provisions of the Act or of the confidentiality of any information relating to that person.

(3) A Consumer Tribunal must keep the records of the proceedings.

(4) Any person who has an interest in any proceedings that have taken place, may in the prescribed manner, obtain copies of the record contemplated in subsection (3).

Summoning of witnesses and production of documents before Consumer Tribunal

22.(1) For the purpose of ascertaining any matter relating to proceedings before a Consumer Tribunal, a Consumer Tribunal may –

(a) by summons addressed to any person, including the person against whom a consumer complaint has been made, in the prescribed form under the hand of the secretary to the Consumer Tribunal, and served in the prescribed manner –

(i) subpoena such person to appear before the Consumer Tribunal at a time and place specified in such summons, to give evidence; and

(ii) order such person to produce any book, document or object in the possession or custody or under the control of such person and which may be reasonably necessary, material and relevant in connection with the proceedings before the Consumer Tribunal;

(b) order such person to take an oath or make an affirmation; and

(c) question such person and examine any book, document or object which he or she has been required to produce.

(2) The oath or affirmation contemplated in subsection (1)(b) may be administered by any person qualified to administer an oath or accept an affirmation in terms of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners of Oaths Act, 1963 (Act No. 16 of 1963).

(3) A person is guilty of an offence if he or she, having been summoned in terms of this section –

(a) fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place specified in the summons, or to remain in attendance until the conclusion of the proceedings or until he or she has been excused by the Consumer Tribunal from further attendance;

(b) refuses to take the oath or make an affirmation;

(c) refuses to answer, or to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief any question lawfully put to him or her;

(d) fails to produce any book, document or object in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control, which he or she was required to produce; or

(e) makes a false statement before the Consumer Tribunal knowing such statement to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true.

(4) A person who has been summoned to appear in terms of this section may not be entitled to refuse to answer any question or to produce any book, document or object on the ground that he or she would thereby be exposed to a criminal charge: Provided that, to the extent that such answer, book, document or article does expose the person concerned to a criminal charge, no evidence thereof may be admissible in any criminal proceedings against that person, except where that person stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (2)(c) to (e), or in section 319(3) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955).

(5) A person who has attended the proceedings of a Consumer Tribunal as a witness is entitled to the prescribed witness fee.

CHAPTER 4 REALISATION AND PROTECTION OF CONSUMER RIGHTS

Part 1 General

Consumer rights

23.(1) Every consumer has a right –

- (a) to have access to basic goods and services such as adequate food, clothing, housing, health care, education, clean water and sanitation;
- (b) to safety from and protection against production processes, products and services that are dangerous to health or life;
- (c) to be informed of, and to be provided with, the facts needed to make informed choices and to be protected against dishonest or misleading advertising and labeling;
- (d) to choose from a range of products and services offered at competitive prices with an assurance of satisfactory quality;
- (e) to have his or her interests represented in the making and execution of government policy and the development of products and services;
- (f) to redress or to receive a fair settlement of just claims, including compensation for misrepresentation, or shoddy goods or services;
- (g) to education as a consumer and to acquire knowledge and skills needed to make informed and confident choices about goods and services, while being aware of basic consumer rights and responsibilities and how to act on them; and

(h) to live and work in a healthy environment that is not threatening to the well-being of present and future generations.

(2) The Office must take reasonable steps in ensuring that the rights contemplated in subsection (1) are realised by all consumers in the Province.

Realisation of consumer rights

24. Any of the following persons, may in the manner provided for in this Act, approach a Consumer Tribunal or the Consumer Protector where his or her rights in terms of this Act have been infringed, impaired or threatened or where any prohibited conduct has occurred or is occurring –

- (a) a person acting on his or her own behalf;
- (b) an authorised person acting on behalf of another person who cannot act in his or her own name;
- (c) a person acting as a member of, or in the interest of, a group or class of affected persons;
- (d) a person acting in the public interest, where the leave of the Consumer Protector or the Consumer Tribunal, as the case may be, has been granted for such person to act in the public interest; or
- (e) an association acting in the interest of its members.

Protection of consumer rights

25. If a consumer has exercised, asserted or sought to uphold any right set out in this Act or in an agreement or transaction with a supplier, the supplier may not, in response –

- (a) discriminate directly or indirectly against such consumer, compared to the supplier's treatment of any other consumer who has exercised, asserted or sought to uphold such a right;
- (b) penalise the consumer;
- (c) alter, or propose to alter, the terms or conditions of a transaction or agreement with the consumer, to the detriment of the consumer; or
- (d) take any action to accelerate, enforce, or terminate an agreement with the consumer.

Enforcement of rights by consumer

26.(1) A person contemplated in section 25 may seek to enforce any rights in terms of this Act or in terms of a transaction or agreement, or otherwise resolve a dispute with a supplier by –

- (a) referring the matter directly to the Consumer Protector;
- (b) referring the matter to a Consumer Tribunal, if such a direct referral is permitted by this Act in the case of the particular dispute; or
- (c) referring the matter to the applicable ombud with jurisdiction.

(2) Where the matter contemplated in subsection (1) does not concern a supplier contemplated in subsection (1)(c), a person contemplated in section 25 may seek to enforce any rights in terms of this Act or in terms of a transaction or agreement, or otherwise resolve a dispute with a supplier by –

- (a) referring the matter to the applicable industry ombud, accredited in terms of section 82(6) of the Consumer Protection Act, 2008 (Act No. 68 of 2008), if the supplier is subject to any such ombud;
- (b) referring the matter to another dispute resolution agent contemplated in section 70 of the Consumer Protection Act, 2008 (Act No. 68 of 2008);
- (c) filing a complaint with the Consumer Commission office in accordance with section 7 of the Consumer Protection Act, 2008 (Act No. 68 of 2008); or
- (d) approaching a Tribunal with jurisdiction over the matter, if all other remedies available to that person in terms of Consumer Protection Act, 2008 (Act No. 68 of 2008), has been exhausted.

*Part 2Lodging and investigation of consumer complaintsLodging complaint with Office of Consumer Protector

27.(1) Any consumer may in the prescribed manner lodge a consumer complaint with the Office of the Consumer Protector.

(2) A consumer complaint contemplated in subsection (1) which is not in writing must be reduced to writing by the Office.

(3) The Office may open a file or dossier concerning the consumer complaint and must maintain an index and filing system of consumer complaints.

Investigation procedure

28.(1) Upon receiving a consumer complaint in terms of this Act, the Consumer Protector must direct a person in the service of the Office of the Consumer Protector or an investigating officer, to investigate the complaint as quickly as practicable.

(2) The person or investigating officer referred to in subsection (1) must make a preliminary assessment of the consumer complaint as contemplated in this Act.

(3) The Office may not cause any person to be summoned for investigation until a preliminary assessment has been made of the consumer complaint.

(4) If, upon consideration of the preliminary assessment, the Consumer Protector is of the opinion that the consumer complaint may be more appropriately dealt with by another competent authority, he or she may at any time refer any investigation or aspect thereof to such other authority, including an authority in another province: Provided that the Office may at any time resume the investigation in relation to that matter.

Preliminary assessment of consumer complaint

29.(1) The Office of the Consumer Protector must make a preliminary assessment of the consumer complaint lodged in terms of section 27(1).

(2) The Office may at any time during its investigations, alter its preliminary assessment, inter alia in light of new evidence or law, and proceed according to an amended assessment.

(3) The Office must assess whether the consumer complaint lodged in terms of section 27(1), is being lodged by a bona fide consumer.

(4) The complainant bears the onus of establishing that he or she is a bona fide consumer.

(5) If the complainant contemplated in subsection (3) is not a bona fide consumer, the Office may not investigate the complaint.

(6) The Office must assess whether the consumer complaint against a business, or a person purporting to carry on business or a business practice, conveys the potential of criminal liability or civil liability.

Summoning and questioning of persons and production of books and documents

30.(1) For the purposes of an investigation contemplated in section 28(1) the Consumer Protector, or a person in the service of the Office of the Consumer Protector, authorised by the Consumer Protector, may –

(a) summon any person who is believed to –

- (i) be able to furnish any information on the subject of the investigation; or
- (ii) to have in his or her possession or under his or her control any book, document or other object relating to that subject, to appear before a person in the service of the Office at a time and place specified in the summons, to be questioned or to produce that book, document or other object; and

(b) question that person, under oath or affirmation administered by the Consumer Protector or another person in the service of the Office of the Consumer Protector, authorised by the Consumer Protector, and examine or retain for further information or for safe custody such a book, document or other object.

(2) A summons referred to in subsection (1)(a) must –

- (a) be in the prescribed form citing the person summoned;
- (b) contain particulars of the matter in connection with which the person concerned is required to appear;
- (c) be signed by the Consumer Protector or another person in the service of the Office authorised by the Consumer Protector; and

(d) be served in the prescribed manner.

(3) A person appearing by virtue of subsection (1)(a) –

(a) may be assisted at the examination by any person of his or her choice; and,
(b) is entitled to receive from moneys appropriated by law for such purpose, as witness fees, an amount equal to the amount which he or she would have received as witness fees had he or she been summoned to attend criminal proceedings in the High Court held at the place mentioned in the summons in question.

(4) A person is guilty of an offence if he or she, having been summoned in terms of this section –

(a) fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place specified in the summons, or to remain in attendance until the conclusion of the proceedings or until he or she has been excused from further attendance by the Consumer Protector; or
(b) refuses to take the oath or make an affirmation.

(5) A person questioned in terms of subsection (1), must answer each question truthfully and to the best of that persons ability, but the person is not obliged to answer any question if the answer is self-incriminating.

(6) No self-incriminating answer given or statement made to a person exercising any power in terms of this section is admissible as evidence against the person who gave the answer or made the statement in criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings for perjury or in which that person is tried for an offence contemplated in subsection (5), and then only to the extent that the answer or statement is relevant to prove the offence charged.

Appointment of investigators

31.(1) The Consumer Protector –

(a) may appoint any suitable employee of the Office or any other suitable person employed by the State, as an investigator; and

- (b) must issue each investigator with a certificate in the prescribed form stating that the person has been appointed as an investigator in terms of this Act.
- (2) When an investigator performs any function of an investigator in terms of this Act, the investigator –
- (a) must be in possession of a certificate of appointment issued to that investigator in terms of subsection (1);
 - (b) must show that certificate to any person who –
 - (i) is affected by the investigator's actions in terms of this Act; and
 - (ii) requests to see the certificate; and
 - (c) has the powers of a peace officer as defined in section 1 of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1977 (Act No. 51 of 1977), and may exercise the powers conferred on a peace officer by law.
- (3) The Consumer Protector may appoint or contract with any suitably qualified person as an investigator to conduct research, audits, inquiries or other investigations on behalf of the Consumer Protector.
- (4) A person appointed in terms of subsection (3) is not an investigator as contemplated in subsection (1).
- (5) Subject to the laws governing the public service, the Member of the Executive Council, in consultation with the Member of the Executive Council for Finance, may appoint persons in the service of the Office or any other suitable persons as investigating officers, who must be subject to the control and directions of the Consumer Protector.
- (6) The Consumer Protector is deemed to have been appointed as an investigating officer.
- (7) An investigating officer must be provided with a certificate of appointment signed by or on behalf of the Consumer Protector and in which it is stated that he or she is an investigating officer appointed in terms of this Act.

(8) An investigating officer must, when performing any function in terms of this Act, have his or her certificate of appointment in his or her possession.

Search and seizure

32.(1) In order to obtain any information required by the Office of the Consumer Protector in relation to an investigation, an investigating officer may, subject to the provisions of this section, during office hours enter any premises on or in which any book, document or other object connected with that investigation is or is suspected to be, and may –

(a) inspect or search those premises, and there make such inquiries as may be necessary for the purpose of obtaining any such information;

(b) examine any object found on or in the premises which has or might have a bearing on the investigation in question and request from the owner or person in charge of the premises or from any person in whose possession or charge that object is, information regarding that object;

(c) make copies of or extracts from any book or document found on or in the premises which has or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, and request from any person who is suspected of having the necessary information, an explanation of any entry therein; or

(d) seize, against the issue of a receipt, anything on or in the premises which has or might reasonably have a bearing on the investigation in question, if the investigating officer needs to retain it for further examination or for safe custody.

(2) Unless the owner or person in charge of the premises concerned has consented thereto in writing, an investigating officer may enter premises and exercise any power contemplated in subsection (1) only under a search warrant, which may only be issued by a magistrate or a judge if it appears from information given to the magistrate or judge on oath or solemn affirmation that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that a book, document or other object which may afford evidence for the investigation is on or in those premises.

(3) A search warrant contemplated in subsection (2) must –

(a) authorise an investigating officer mentioned in the warrant to enter the premises identified in the warrant for the purpose of exercising any power contemplated in subsection (1);

(b) be executed by day, unless the magistrate or judge specifically authorises the execution thereof by night; and

(c) be of force until it is executed, cancelled by a competent court, or a period of one week from the day of its issue expires, whichever occurs first.

(4) An investigating officer executing a search warrant under this section must, before such execution, upon demand by any person whose rights may be affected –

(a) show that person his or her certificate of appointment; and

(b) hand to that person a copy of the warrant.

(5) A person from whose possession or charge a book or document has been taken under this section must, as long as it is in the possession or charge of the investigating officer concerned or of the Office be allowed on request to make copies thereof or to take extracts therefrom at any reasonable time at his or her own expense and under the supervision of that investigating officer or a person in the service of the Office.

(6) A person is guilty of an offence if he or she –

(a) obstructs or hinders an investigating officer in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this section; or

(b) after enquiry having been made of him or her under subsection (1)(a), or having been requested for information or an explanation under subsection (1)(b) or (c), gives an answer or information or an explanation which is false or misleading, knowing it to be false or misleading.

Negotiation of arrangement to resolve consumer complaint

33.(1) The Office of the Consumer Protector may negotiate and conclude an arrangement with any person for –

(a) the discontinuance or avoidance of the business practice which gave rise to the consumer complaint;

(b) the reimbursement, with or without interest, to the affected consumer;

(c) the discontinuance or avoidance of any aspect of the business practice which gave rise to the consumer complaint; or

(d) any other matter relating to the business practice which gave rise to the consumer complaint.

(2) An arrangement contemplated in subsection (1) –

(a) may be concluded at any time after the institution of an investigation, but before the making of an order by the High Court in terms of section 37;

(b) must be in writing and signed by the parties thereto; and,

(c) may be subject to confirmation by the High Court in accordance with section 37.

Institution of proceedings after completion of investigation

34.(1) Upon completion of an investigation and subject to subsection (6), the Consumer Protector may institute proceedings in support of the consumer in the Consumer Tribunal if it has jurisdiction over the person alleged to be responsible for the business practice which gave rise to the consumer complaint.

(2) For purposes of such proceedings, the Consumer Protector is deemed to have locus standi.

(3) If, in the opinion of the Consumer Protector, a consumer complaint relating to a hard bargain or a question of equity raises a constitutional law issue, the Office may institute proceedings in support of the consumer in the High Court;

(4) For purposes of the proceedings contemplated in subsection (3), the Consumer Protector is deemed to have locus standi in such proceedings;

(5) Whenever the Office institutes proceedings in the Consumer Tribunal or in the High Court, the Consumer Protector is cited as First Plaintiff or First Applicant and the consumer is cited as Second Plaintiff or Second Applicant, as the case may be.

(6) The Consumer Protector must choose the appropriate forum in which to prosecute the matter by taking into account the provisions of this Act, with particular regard to the expeditious completion of the litigation and effective redress for the consumer.

(7) When choosing the appropriate forum as contemplated in subsection (6), the Consumer Protector must take into account the costs of the litigation to the parties concerned and accordingly commence proceedings in the forum where costs would be the least onerous to a defendant.

(8) No proceedings may be instituted by the Consumer Protector unless the consumer –

- (a) signs a document in which the consumer confirms the veracity of the complaint and indemnifies the Consumer Protector; and
- (b) signs a document indemnifying the Office from the consequences of any false evidence which may be adduced by him or her.

Part 3

Adjudication and review of consumer complaints

Review panel

35.(1) If the Office of the Consumer Protector decides neither to institute proceedings nor to refer the matter to another authority nor to proceed before a Consumer Tribunal, the Consumer Protector must, in writing, notify the consumer and the person or business against whom the consumer complaint was lodged of such a decision together with the reasons therefor.

(2) The reasons for the decision contemplated in subsection (1) must accompany such notice contemplated in subsection (1).

(3) If the consumer is aggrieved by the decision of the Consumer Protector not to institute proceedings, the consumer may, within fourteen days of receipt of the decision, refer the decision for review to the Review Panel.

(4) The Review Panel referred to in subsection (1) must be situated at the Office.

(5) The Office must note the referral for a review and forthwith inform the responsible Member of the Executive Council of the need to convene a Review Panel.

(6) The responsible Member of the Executive Council must convene a Review Panel within fourteen days of the consumer seeking a review of the Consumer Protector's decision contemplated in sub-section (1).

(7) The Review Panel convened by the responsible Member of the Executive Council in terms of subsection (6), must be composed of an ad hoc committee of three persons with experience and knowledge of consumer matters.

(8) The persons contemplated in subsection (7), may be in the employ of the State but not employed in the Office.

(9) Subject to the laws governing the public service, a person appointed to the Review Panel who is not in the full-time service of the State must be appointed on such conditions and at such remuneration as may be prescribed by the responsible Member of the Executive Council, in consultation with the Member of the Executive Council responsible for Finance.

(10) Subject to the rules of natural justice, the Review Panel may consider the merits of the decision and any oral or written submissions, if any, by the consumer, the person or business against whom the consumer complaint was lodged and the Consumer Protector.

(11) The Review Panel may substitute its own decision for that of the Consumer Protector and order the Consumer Protector to institute proceedings or to confirm the decision of the Consumer Protector not to institute proceedings.

(12) The decision of the Review Panel taken in terms of subsection (11) is referred to as the review judgment.

(13) The review judgment contemplated in subsection (12) is final and binding on the consumer, the person or business against whom the consumer complaint was lodged and the Consumer Protector.

(14) The Review Panel must, in writing, inform the consumer, the person or business against whom the consumer complaint was lodged and the Consumer Protector of the review judgment and must furnish each with a free copy of the review judgment.

Effect of review judgment

36. If the Review Panel orders the Consumer Protector to institute proceedings on behalf of a consumer, section 29 applies with the necessary changes required by the context.

CHAPTER 5 ARRANGEMENTS NEGOTIATED BY OFFICE OF CONSUMER PROTECTOR

Confirmation of arrangements negotiated by Office of Consumer Protector

37.(1) The Office may apply to the High Court for confirmation of an arrangement negotiated and concluded in terms of this Act.

(2) The High Court may, with due consideration of the interests of affected consumers and businesses and the parties concerned, issue an order –

- (a) confirming the arrangement;
- (b) confirming the arrangement with such amendments as may be agreed to by the parties concerned and subject to such conditions as the court may deem fit;
- (c) setting aside that arrangement if, after the parties involved in the arrangement have been given an opportunity to be heard, the court is satisfied that the arrangement will not ensure the discontinuance or avoidance of the business practice which gave rise to the consumer complaint.

(3) An order in terms of subsection (2) must be published in the Gazette.

CHAPTER 6 LAW ENFORCEMENT AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Part 1

Confidentiality, limitation of liability, waiver of benefits and civil remedies

Confidentiality

38. No investigating officer or person in the service of the Office of the Consumer

Protector or performing duties for the Office may disclose any information acquired by him or her in the exercise or performance of any powers, functions or duties in terms of this Act, except –
